TULANE STUDIES IN ZOOLOGY

VOLUME 2

1954-1955

TULANE UNIVERSITY
NEW ORLEANS

TULANE STUDIES IN ZOOLOGY is devoted primarily to the zoology of the area bordering the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea. Each number is issued separately and deals with an individual study. As volumes are completed, title pages and tables of contents are distributed to institutions exchanging the entire series.

Manuscripts submitted for publication are evaluated by the editor and by an editorial committee selected for each paper. Contributors need not be members of the Tulane University faculty.
